Billie B. Brown, brave, brilliant and bold, is back in two new adventures! Children will readily relate to this series of stand-alone, everyday adventures that has taken the early-reader scene by storm!

- No more than 50 words per page.
- Word art or illustration on every second page.
- Feisty, irresistible heroine.
- True-to-life situations.
- Positive problem-solving.

At school, Billie's class is learning about teeth. They learn that an elephant has big pointy teeth called tusks. Crocodiles have seventy teeth and sharks have three sets of teeth. Even slugs have teeth!

Ms. Walton asks how many people in the class have lost a tooth.

"Or there'll be BIG trouble."
Jason grins. "OK," he says. "I promise."

Billie grins too. She can't wait to see the look on Jack's face when she walks into the playground with the big bully.

“Erm...sorry about your soccer ball,” he says quietly. “And your teapot.”
Billie feels the hot, angry ball inside her chest soften. “That’s all right,” she says. “It wasn’t a very good teapot anyway. Actually, it was more like an elephant poop than a teapot.”
