DO NICE, BE KIND, SPREAD HAPPY

ACTS OF KINDNESS FOR KIDS

Did your mom ever tell you it's nice to be nice? Well she's right, but the good news is it's actually fun to be nice too. This cool and quirky title is full of ways to spread a bit of happy with some guerrilla acts of goodness.

Are you sly enough to try a bit of "reverse robbing," and try to sneak a treat into someone's bag or pocket? Perhaps you've got what it takes to be a mean, clean, tidying machine, picking the trash up off the streets. Whatever your special power, this book is packed full of suggestions for how to be a helpful hero or a niceness ninja.
