

ANNA HIBISCUS

Welcome Home, Anna Hibiscus!

Go Well, Anna Hibiscus!

You're Amazing, Anna Hibiscus!

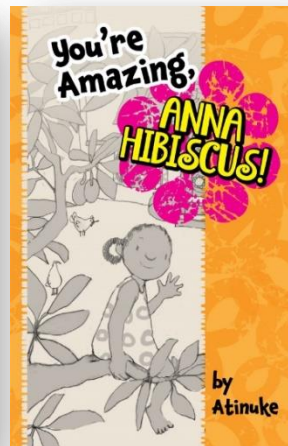

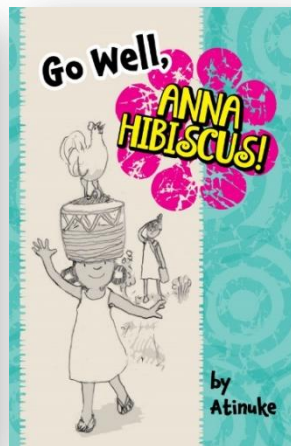

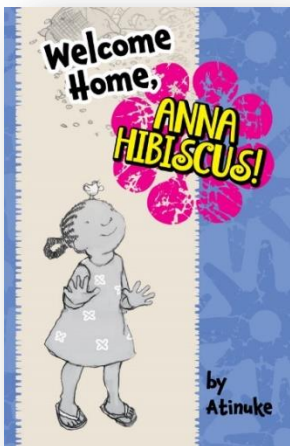

Atinuke * Lauren Tobia

Series Fiction | Ages 5-9 | Paperback | 5 x 7 ¾ | 112 pp | $5.99

Welcome Home | ISBN: 978-1-61067-678-6 | LOC: 2016961408 Go Well | ISBN: 978-1-61067-679-3 | LOC: 2016961409

You're Amazing | ISBN: 978-1-61067-681-6 | LOC: 2016961413

Anna Hibiscus lives in Africa – amazing Africa – with her whole family in a wonderful house; there is always someone to laugh and play with.

- Warm, loving, multigenerational family.
- Urban life in today's Africa.
- Commonality of cultures, values and responsibility.
- Highly acclaimed series.

"This is Snow White's new home," she said. "When you are at school, I will look after her."

Anna Hibiscus's eyes were still crying, but her mouth started to smile.

Grandmother smiled even more kindly.

"Cheep! Cheep!" said Snow White and fluttered down to Anna's shoulder to rub against her cheek.

"Snow White is getting big," said Grandmother.

Grandmother held out her hand and took Snow White. Grandmother looked carefully at the big white chick.

"Anna Hibiscus," she said, "your chick is a boy! Snow White is a baby cockere!"

Anna Hibiscus opened her eyes wide in surprise.

"A boy!" shouted Double.

"Like me!" shouted Trouble.

"No wonder that chicken is so much trouble!" Auntie Joly grumbled. Everybody laughed.

And Anna Hibiscus stopped crying and laughed too!

