Author/illustrator: Peter Carnavas grew up in Brisbane and on the Sunshine Coast in Queensland, Australia. He was a quiet kid who did things slowly most of the time. He spent a lot of time drawing little pictures and writing stories ... and he still does. petercarnavas.com

When Penguin hears Whale singing the blues, he tries to help. But how exactly do you stop a blue whale from feeling blue? A delightful story about a whale with bike trouble and his happy-go-lucky penguin friend who manages – somehow! – to cheer him up.

BLUE WHALE BLUES

- Conveys a positive message of finding delight in what you already have.
- Makes you laugh!
- Sparks discussion between child/caregiver, counselor/student or in a classroom.
- What a good friend the patient and persevering penguin is!
- Reads like a song making it easy for the child to join in on the refrain – great for family, library or classroom read alouds or read alongs.
- Could be used as a choral reading piece, even with older students.
- Humorous and whimsical illustrations add to the joy of this book.
